SHORT- AND LONG-TERM HEALTH PLANS FOR INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL

Travel medical insurance policies are designed to pick up where your primary domestic health plan leaves off.[1] The most comprehensive plans include coverage for hospital stays, surgeries and medically necessary evacuations, plus basic services like doctor's office visits, ambulance services, prescription medications and more.

WHY CHOOSE GEOBLUE?

Network Providers:

- Are thoroughly reviewed and approved
- Practice Western-style medicine
- Speak fluent English
- Have accreditations and board certifications from the American or Royal Board of Medical Specialties

Mobile and Online Services

- Locate local providers, hospitals and pharmacies
- Display ID card and email/fax to providers as necessary
- Receive daily alerts detailing the latest security and health issues in a specific destination

Medical Assistance and Customer Service

- Medical assistance and customer service teams are available 24/7/365
- Available to assist with all types of medical concerns, including chronic care support, second opinions and maternity care
- Video consultations available in remote areas

Direct Pay[2]

- GeoBlue pays the provider directly
- No need to pay out of pocket and submit a claim

[1]Requires a primary health plan. A primary plan is a group health benefit plan, an individual health benefit plan or a government health plan (e.g. Medicare). NOTE: Medicaid and V.A. health plans do not constitute primary health insurance. The primary plan does not need to be a Blue Cross and/or Blue Shield medical plan in order to be eligible.

[2]Sign up available via app, web, email or phone. For optimal service, request Direct Pay at least 48 hours prior to a scheduled appointment.
